LEADERSHIP SUMMIT TO BE HELD AT CITY HALL TO ENCOURAGE CIVIC PARTICIPATION

WORCESTER, MA – The Worcester City Manager's Citizens Advisory Council will hold a Leadership Summit to provide information about volunteer opportunities for those interested in becoming more involved in municipal government. The City's various Boards and Commissions offer a unique opportunity for residents to actively participate in the operation of local government.

The Leadership Summit will take place on Wednesday, September 30, 2009 from 6 PM to 8 PM in the Levi Lincoln Jr. Room, 3rd Floor, City Hall, 455 Main Street. The keynote speaker is Mr. Jordan Levy, former Mayor of Worcester and local radio talk show host.

Residents will learn how to apply, which positions are available, what the role entails, and how members shape policy and uphold regulations that help make Worcester a better place to live.

City Manager Michael O'Brien, City Solicitor David Moore and George Valeri, Chairman of the Citizens Advisory Council will be in attendance.

The Leadership Summit is free and the public is encouraged to attend. Light refreshments will be served.

For further information or to register, residents can contact the City of Worcester's Human Resources Office at 508-799-1030 or hr@ci.worcester.ma.us Space is limited. Residents are encouraged to register by September 23, 2009.
